However, a recent survey suggests that there is a more pressing concern - it's actually the pressure of not having the perfect smile that is giving children nightmares. A survey of 1500 British parents found that 18% of children aged five and under have had nightmares about their oral health, while 12% have experienced nightmares so bad that they have woken up.

Soooo I decided to make some random thing where Nightmare and friends has a kid living with them. This will kinda just be a bunch of one shots with the reader. (Y/N) is around 6 and has magic, but they don't use it much. I'll refer to (Y/N) as they/them, but feel free to insert your gender there! You can also give suggestions for any ideas you have!
