Emma shares a favorite fantasy with her husband. A fantasy in which another man takes her in a way Ken never has. Ken's a good husband, and a great provider. Their marriage is built on very strong foundations. And yet hotwife and cuckold fantasies play through both of their minds over and over. What if? But how? Making it happen might not be as simple as the fantasy suggests. The Hotwife Coach is Max Hatfield, a dominant man who's built his empire around introductions to a new world of pleasure. A place where women like Emma can find fulfilment in real men. This series collection follows Emma's journey into being a hotwife and includes her inspection and her presentation to the men on Mr Hatfield's books. Her husband is also embarking on a new journey where he'll experience humiliation, chastity and observing Emma in increasingly erotic situations.

Over two-hundred-thousand words comprise comprise the first volume of Clare Penne's tale of a powerful CEO's sexual perversity and how the women in his life use it to ensure he will NEVER be powerful again. A provocative and revelatory new biography of the legendary UCLA coach John Wooden, by one of America's top college basketball writers No college basketball coach has ever dominated the sport like John Wooden. His UCLA teams reached unprecedented heights in the 1960s and '70s capped by a run of ten NCAA championships in twelve seasons and an eighty-eight-game winning streak, records that stand to this day. Wooden also became a renowned motivational speaker and writer, revered for his "Pyramid of Success." Seth Davis of Sports Illustrated and CBS Sports has written the definitive biography of Wooden, an unflinching portrait that draws on archival research and more than two hundred interviews with players, opponents, coaches, and even Wooden himself. Davis shows how hard Wooden strove for success, from his All-American playing days at Purdue through his early years as a high school and college coach to the glory days at UCLA, only to discover that reaching new heights brought new burdens and frustrations. Davis also reveals how at the pinnacle of his career Wooden found himself on questionable ground with alumni, referees, assistants, and even some of his players. His was a life not only of lessons taught, but also of lessons learned. Woven into the story as well are the players who powered Wooden's championship teams – Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Bill Walton, Walt Hazzard, and others – many of whom speak frankly about their coach. The portrait that emerges from Davis's remarkable biography is of a man in full, whose life story still resonates today.
